Festus/Crystal City, MO. – Where in the middle of a Missouri summer is the only place in the St. Louis Metro area that you can participate in a three-mile challenge run in a comfortable 55 degree environment or choose to take a Polar Plunge in cold 46 degree water for a great cause??!!

#freezin4areason!

The Missouri Juvenile Justice Association (MJJA) partnering with Fleet Feet Racing to host the First Annual MJJA Cave Run & Polar Plunge at 10 a.m. Saturday, July 25, 2015 at the Crystal City Underground (CCU). CCU is a former sand mine located in Crystal City, MO and features a 6 million square foot enclosed underground climate-controlled space that is approximately 200 acres with 30-40 ft. ceilings.

Proceeds raised benefit the MJJA, and a portion of the funds will be toward creating higher education scholarships for at-risk youth who have been in the Missouri Juvenile Justice System.
